

Table of Contents

A. Introduction and Brief Overview.	4
B. Escrow Basics.	5
1. What is escrow?	5
2. Why is escrow important?	6
3. Who can provide escrow services in California?	6
4. Are there any major differences between independent escrow agents licensed by the Department of Business Oversight and controlled escrow companies performing escrows under the exemption of the Financial Code's Escrow Law?... 7	7
5. How does a real estate broker controlled escrow work?	9
6. How can I identify which type of escrow holder I am working with?	9
7. Who chooses the escrow holder?	10
8. When does escrow typically open and how does it work?	11
9. Exactly what are escrow instructions?	12
10. What types of transactions go through escrow?	12
11. What is the role of the escrow officer?	13
12. Are there any differences in the way escrows are conducted in northern and southern California?	14
13. Are escrow costs fixed by law; and how much do escrow services cost?	15
14. Who pays for the escrow fee?	15
15. What are closing costs?	16
16. What are prorations?	16
17. What is a closing statement?	17
18. In a typical real estate transaction, what are the buyer's and seller's responsibilities?	17
19. How should I take title to my property?	18
20. What documents need to be acknowledged in front of a notary?	18
21. What if I have to remit (pay or add more) funds at closing?	19
22. What do the terms "funding" and "recording" mean?	19
23. How long does an escrow take to complete?	20
24. What happens when escrow closes?	20
25. What happens when a transaction fail to close and the escrow cancels?	20
26. Are escrows for manufactured homes and/or mobilehomes different than escrows for standard residential/single family homes?	21
C. Helpful Tips.	21
1. Prepare yourself for the escrow process.	21
2. Carefully review, read and understand all documents before signing!	22
3. Ask for an estimated closing statement up-front.	22
4. Review the preliminary title report.	23
5. Communicate regularly with your mortgage broker or lender about your loan.	23
6. Remember that documents are time sensitive!	24
7. Credits that you are owed must be communicated to the lender.	24

D. Beware of Fraud..... 25

- 1. Do your own homework and really check out your escrow holder. 25
- 2. When possible, meet the people working for you in person. 26
- 3. Retain a copy of everything you sign and receive. 26
- 4. A word about Internet escrow companies. 27
- 5. Be sure to question unexpected or last minute changes to documents and previously held agreements. 27
- 6. Your lender and/or mortgage broker can most competently answer questions about your loan. 27
- 7. Payments made outside of escrow. 28

E. Conclusion. 29

References..... 30